

The Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear The Federal Communications Commission,

I would not be happy about this tax, for I am only 12 years old and use my prepaid phone only for emergency use. This new tax would be hard on me because I can hardly afford the phone now and I only have it for an emergency. To pay for this phone I have to do many chores like shovel drives and help around the house. It would be hard for me to afford this new charge.

Sincerely,

Michael Preble
46, Spruce lane
Oakdale, Connecticut 06370-1330